

FELSHTIN SOCIETY
SIDNEY SHAIJEVITZ AWARD

Awarded to Sidney Shaievitz
on May 3, 2009

This award is presented to those who have demonstrated extraordinary commitment to preserving the memories of Felshin and honoring its citizens – the martyrs who perished in the pogrom of 1919, those who risked their lives to save them, and the survivors who endured tremendous hardship to build a better world for future generations.

Thank you for your dedication and love. Your efforts embody the universal goal of freedom from religious persecution and have helped foster world peace.

You have set an example for many.
